Body:

Dear Author First Name Last Name,

Re: Article Title; Journal Title

Congratulations on the recent acceptance of your manuscript submission to Journal Title. The Taylor & Francis production team will work with you to publish your article online as quickly as possible.

We would like to let you know that your institution has an open access agreement with Taylor & Francis, which means you may be eligible for funding to publish your article open access. We have let them know that your paper has been accepted and shared your article information, including your email address.

What happens next?

It's important to know that not all articles will be eligible for funding under this agreement, so please click here to view the latest information.

If your institution approves open access funding for your article, we will let you know. You may also request approval by selecting the open access option.

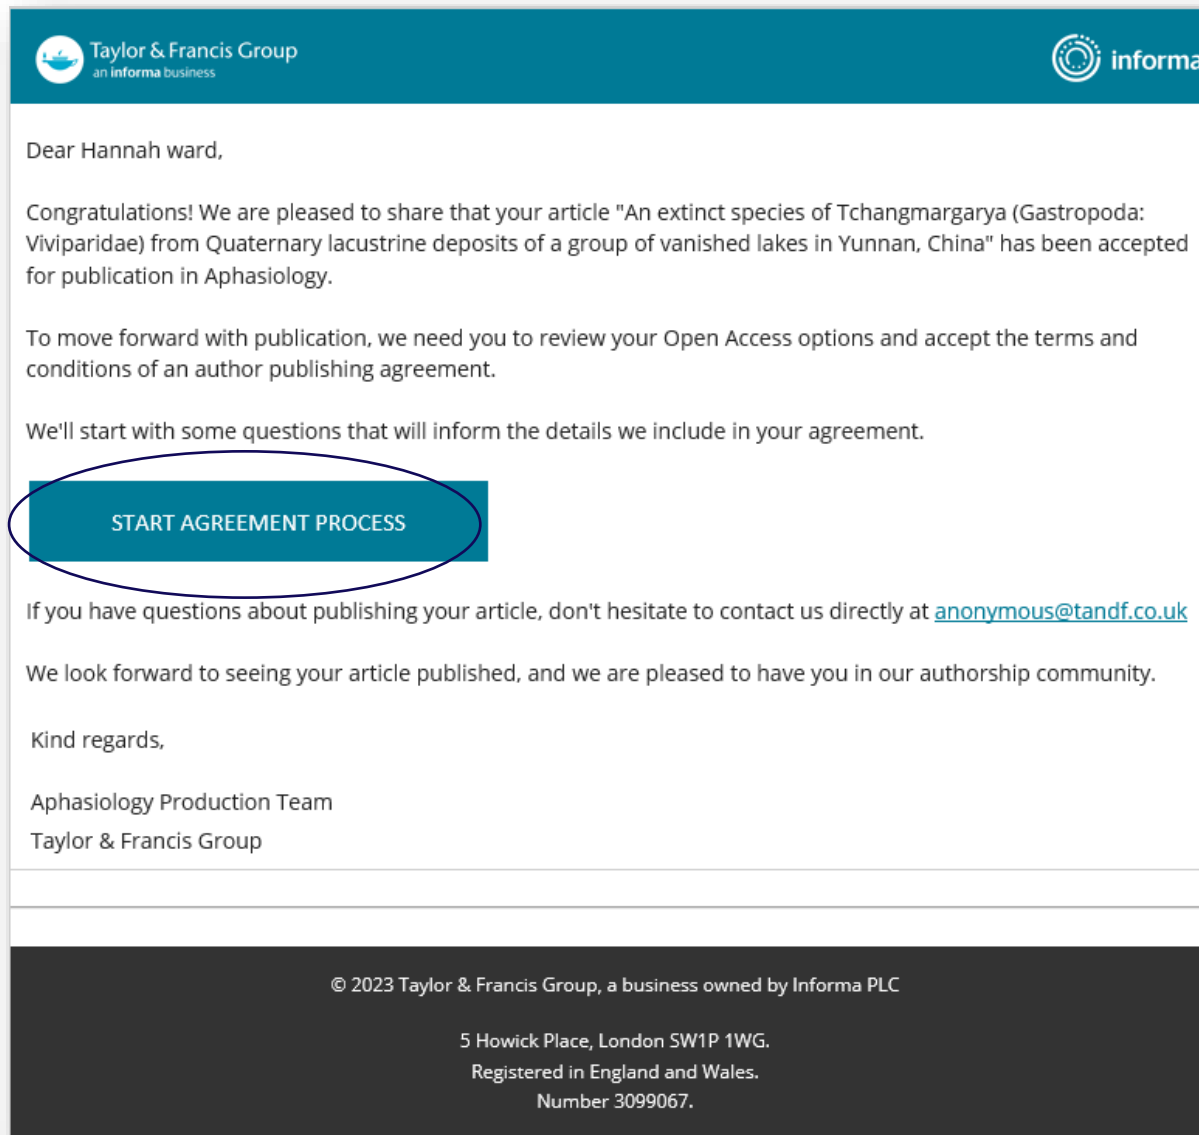

Look out for an email inviting you to select and sign your article publishing agreement.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact apc@tandf.co.uk, or your librarian.

Kind regards,

Once your article has been accepted and assigned an DOI you will receive an email, alerting you to the agreement in place with SIKT, if your article meets the eligibility criteria of the agreement.

Confirm research funders

We need to know whether you received any research funding to produce this article. If you did, your funders may have specific requirements that we need to reflect in your author publishing agreement.

Did you receive any research funding for this article?

☒ Yes

☐ No

Please add your funders until the list below is complete. Start typing your funder's name, and you'll find suggestions for common funders. If yours isn't there, type the complete name and add it.

Choose Open Access

Open Access publishing can:

- ✓ Increase the discoverability and readership of your article
- ✓ Make an impact and reach new readers, not just those with easy access to a research library
- ✓ Freely share your work with anyone, anywhere
- ✓ Comply with funding mandates please check the requirements of your institution, employer or funder
- ✓ Rigorous peer review for every open access article

Select an option

Based on the information you provided at submission, you may be eligible for Open Access funding through an agreement from your organization. This means your article will be free for anyone to read. This typically leads to more citations and downloads.

How would you like to fund Open Access?

- ☒ I'd like to use the Simms Cross Primary School Open Access agreement
- ☐ I'll pay for Open Access with other funds

PREVIOUS

NEXT

On step 2 of the APA you can request the use of the SIKT agreement, if you don't see this option, please contact apc@tandf.co.uk for assistance

If you choose this option, we will ask your institution if they will fund Open Access publication of your article.

If they cannot provide funding for Open Access, we will let you know via email, and you can choose to fund it yourself or publish it as an article with subscription-based access.

Confirm who owns your article's copyright

We need to know who owns the copyright of your article so that we can accurately reflect that ownership in your authorship agreement.

Many times, scholars working on original research own the copyright for their written works, but not always. If you produced this article as work-for-hire or as a government employee, for example, you may not own the copyright.

Please tell us about the copyright ownership of your article. ?

- ☒ I own copyright. If I have co-authors, we jointly own copyright and I am acting on our behalf.
- ☐ I am an employee of the UK, Canadian, Australian, or other Commonwealth Realm Government, and the Crown retains and asserts copyright. ?
- ☐ I am a US Government (including NIH) employee and there is no copyright to transfer ?
- ☐ I am a contractor of the US Government (includes NIH contractors) ?
- ☐ I am an employee of the European Commission and copyright is asserted and retained by the European Union. ?
- ☐ I am employed and the copyright belongs to my employer (or is a 'work made for hire'). ?
- ☐ I am an employee of a Government, Agency, or International Organization and copyright is retained by that entity. ?

licence

You have two options of agreement for Open Select publishing with Taylor & Francis/Routledge.

- Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-NoDerivs (CC BY-NC-ND): Under this license others may download your works and share them with others as long as they credit you, but they can't change them in any way or use them commercially. The License also allows for text- and data-mining of your works. This license is offered to authors publishing on an open-access basis in an Open Select journal.
- Creative Commons Attribution (CC BY): Others may distribute, remix, tweak, and build upon your work, even commercially, as long as they credit you for the original creation. This license is required by certain funding bodies. The author is asked to grant Taylor & Francis the right to publish her or his article as the final, definitive, and citable Version of Scholarly Record. Reuse conditions will be subject to the license type chosen by the author.
